BABY SWALLOWS SAFETY PIN

Ann Moore, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Moore, Jr., formerly of Paris, now residing in Hazard, swallowed an open safety pin while visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Addams, in Cynthia, parents of Mrs. Moore. A physician was summoned and after several unsuccessful attempts to dislodge the pin, the child was taken to Cincinnati, accompanied by her mother, and Mr. Wm. Addams and Miss Lucy Addams. An X-ray examination was made by a specialist showed the pin had passed into the stomach. The specialist assured Mrs. Moore there was no further danger of the pin penetrating the intestines. The party returned to Cynthia.

PARKER—HUNTER

—Miss Stella Hunter, of Mason county, and Thos. A. Williams, of Bourbon county, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Parker, near Burtonville, in Mason county, by a minister of the Methodist church.

The groom is a former resident of Mason county. His bride is a popular and attractive young woman.

BROCK—FAULKNER

—A marriage license was issued Tuesday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, to Miss Viola Brock, daughter of Thos. W. Brock, of near Winchester, and James M. Faulkner, of Lexington, son of Russell Faulkner, of Bourbon county. After obtaining their papers the young couple repaired to the residence of Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, where they were married. The attendants were Miss Viola Dundon and Mr. Strauder Harney, both of Paris.

Mrs. Faulkner and her husband are both well-known in Paris, where they have often been guests of friends. Both were students at Transylvania College and at the University of Kentucky. Mr. Faulkner is still a student at the College of the Bible, and resides in Lexington, having charge of a church at Smithfield, in Fayette county. Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner will reside in Lexington for a time.

JACOBY—SCOTT

—The many friends and relatives of Miss Emma Jacoby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitt B. Jacoby, of Hutchison, this county, will be surprised to learn of her marriage at Indianapolis, Ind., last Monday, to Mr. J. C. Scott, a traveling salesman of that city.

Miss Jacoby left Paris Monday morning for Lexington, accompanied by her guest, Mrs. John Stewart, of Paris, ostensibly for the purpose of doing some shopping. They were met there by Mr. Scott, and the three motored to Indianapolis, where Mr. Scott and Miss Jacoby were married that afternoon at the Claypole Hotel.

The bride is an unusually attractive young woman, a musician of exceptional talent, and a graduate of the Millersburg College. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott, Sr., of Indianapolis, and represents the Stoll Oil Company, out of Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby, parents of the bride, are at French Lick Springs.

BALL—EVERMAN

—One of the most beautiful weddings ever witnessed in Corbin was solemnized at the lovely home of Mrs. H. J. Harris, Gordon avenue, Saturday evening, August 12, 1922, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The contracting parties were Miss Margaret Jane Ball and Mr. Henry Esli Everman. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Ball, of Corbin, and by her charming and gracious manner has endeared herself to a host of friends. She is a brunette of unusual type, and never looked lovelier than on this occasion. Gowned in a beautiful creation of white canton crepe, with pearl trimmings, her large picture hat was of white chiffon, trimmed in aigrettes. Her corsage was of Killarney roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Everman has been the efficient book keeper at the First National Bank for the past four years and Mr. Everman is the son of Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of Paris. He is a young man of sterling qualities and for the past several years has been superintendent of the First Christian Church Sunday School at Corbin.

He is a graduate of K. C. & B. College, of North Middletown. During the late war he was in the service of the United States Navy, in the Pay Department. Mr. Everman has been a resident of Corbin for a number of years in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company as assistant chief clerk.

The home was beautifully decorated with pot plants and cut flowers that formed the back ground for the ceremony and an improvised altar festooned with southern smilax and roses. Miss Laura Creech, of Pineville, sang in her sweetest manner, "Because." Mrs. Burdette Owens played the lovely strains of Lohengrin and the bridal party that was formed in the large hall, marched in in the following order: Mr. Everman, his best man, his brother, Mr. James Everman, of Paris, followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Chester Lewis, of Middlesboro, Miss Mary Asher, of Pineville, as maid of honor, then came the bride on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by Mr. Everman, where they were united in marriage by Rev. R. G. Sheerer, pastor of the First Christian church, of Corbin.

Mr. and Mrs. Everman will be at the home of the bride's parents until they have finished their attractive new bungalow. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. A. Gilkey and daughter, Harriett Onelda, and son, John, of Paris, Mrs. A. D. Patterson, of Louisville, Mrs. Chelcie Barger and daughter, Peggie, of Columbia, Mrs. I. N. Phipps, of Chanutta, Kansas, Mrs. A. T. Montgomery, of Wichita, Kansas, E. C. Kash, Railroad Commissioner, of Frankfort, Mr. Marion F. Gilkey and James H. Everman, of Paris.

The following announcements have been received by Bourbon county relatives and friends of the bridegroom:

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar S. Ball announce the marriage of their daughter Margaret Jane to

Mr. Henry Esli Everman on Saturday, August the twelfth, Nineteen hundred and twenty-two, at Corbin, Kentucky.

ESCAPED FROM ASYLUM

Cornelius Hunt, formerly of Maysville, who has been an inmate of the Kentucky Hospital for the Insane, at Lexington, for six years, made his escape from that institution Wednesday night, and came to Paris. Telephone messages to the Paris police asked for his return. Patrolman Roy Turner located Hunt and held him at police headquarters until the arrival of C. D. Willis, a Hospital attendant, who took him back to Lexington.

Hunt wanted the officer to go with him to one of the Paris banks, where, he stated, he had a large amount of money on deposit. He wanted to get a check cashed for the purpose of purchasing a saddle horse to ride to Maysville, where, he said, he was going to take a position in one of the banks. Hunt is well-known to many Paris people who formerly resided in Maysville.

The fellow who watches the clock can hardly expect to be anything but one of the hands.
